We are the place to turn for help when parenting gets complicated.

Our trained professional staff will help you stay involved in your child’s life and commit to maintaining and enhancing that relationship.

We encourage positive and healthy involvement from both parents and will help you:

» Learn more about what your child needs from you.
» Work out a visitation plan.
» Reduce arguing with the other parent.
» Improve your relationship with your child.
» Find services in your community.
» Improve your relationship with your child’s other parent.

PARENTING PROGRAMS
We offer classes to help you learn effective strategies, acquire new skills and develop techniques to improve parenting.

Helping Children Cope with Divorce
In this four-hour seminar, you’ll learn to facilitate visitation, manage conflict, use effective parenting skills, cope with financial obligations, understand typical reactions to divorce and more.

Cooperative Parenting & Divorce
In this six-week class, either one or both parents learn how to allow children to love both parents, manage anger, take control of conflict, negotiate agreements and more.

Focus on Family: Surviving High Conflict
In this two-week class, parents will learn how to handle high conflict situations through conflict resolution.

Active Parenting: The First Five Years
This four-week program covers parenting from birth up to age 5 and includes topics about temperament, mindfulness, brain development, self-calming and special needs.

Active Parenting Now
In this six-week program, parents of 5-12 year olds learn how to build cooperation, effective discipline, logical consequences and how to teach responsibility.

Active Parenting of Teens
In this six-week program, parents of teens 13 and older learn about teens and technology, the latest in drug use prevention, how brain development affects behavior and decision making, discipline, communication and teen sexuality issues.
